

3rd Annual SMHEC Student Sustainability Summit

April 25, 2014

Moraine Valley Community College

Building "M," Moraine Room 2

8:30 a.m. – 2:30 p.m.

I AM SUSTAINABLE BECAUSE . . .

Join us at the red carpet between 8:30 and 11:30 a.m. and tell us why you believe you're sustainable.

A continental breakfast will be available during sign in at 8:30 a.m. and will be followed by a presentation on the environmental, economical, and social aspects of our food system.

Following the presentation, breakout sessions will help you digest what you heard.

A college roundtable discussion during and after the lunch hour will help you learn how to advance sustainability at your institution.

At 1:00 p.m., during a special key note event, Dr. Eban Goodstein, Director of the Bard Center for Environmental Policy will present: "Will Miami Drown, and What Does It Mean To Me? Fatalism, Activism, and a Sustainable Future.

Advanced registration is required. Registration is free. Deadline to register is April 18. Register at <https://www.surveymonkey.com/s/StudentSustainSummit2014>

For additional information or questions please contact Don Brozek at dbrozek@govst.edu or (708) 235-3972.

SUSTAINABLE EATING

The food provided to you at the conference will be chosen to reduce our environmental impact. All food will be locally sourced and organic, where possible.

